Ghosts Of America 12 - Maybe He Was An Angel

Synopsis

These are true ghost stories told by people from all over America and include:- "... She died of the flu decades before at 16. Her name was Isabella. She told the girl that she chose to stay around after she died to wait for her parents..."- "... my room once belonged to a man who was found dead in it. He was murdered by his girlfriend who disappeared after killing him and ran away..."- "... she started talking about someone that died the day before. She had no idea they passed away. She was telling me that the deceased resident was behind my left shoulder..."- "... I could almost hear a name enter my subconscious, Catherine. I followed the pulling feeling calling out Catherine as I went. I felt the pulling subside as I reached the upper right area..."- "... My dad said when he passed he would take the ghost and souls with him, and that was eleven years ago. He passed away in the house, and we don't have much activity at all..."The stories in this book is a small selection of all the stories on our site ghostsofamerica.com.

Customer Reviews

A very good read. For a book of stories contributed by regular people it's well written unlike others which are disjointed. Enjoyed this book very much!
