The Upanishads (Mandala Books)

Synopsis

The Upanishads are the oldest and clearest expression of the perennial philosophy that is the inner core of all the great religions. Passed down by word of mouth for five thousand years, they teach of an absolute and unified field of intelligence that underlies and permeates all creation. This divine ground is our own nature, and to bring our lives into conscious harmony with it is the ultimate purpose of human existence. This lucid translation captures both the poetry and the precision of the original, rendering accessible an extraordinary body of spiritual wisdom as never before. Speaking from the depth of the everlasting NOW, the Upanishads make the mind soar and the heart sing, and point the soul to freedom. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Customer Reviews

Well written commentary. Provocative selections. Transformative. I am thankful for this book.

great book, good format, Super editorial Team. Great support from vendor. so good product, good timing, good price.

found this to be repetitive and was bored at times would of like a clearer imagery of really what was going on.

The Upanishads are the oldest works of philosophy and spirituality ever written. This compact version allows one to bring this spiritual wisdom with them anywhere. Tracey L. Ulshafer, author "Butterfly"
