I read Mr. Taylor's book in one day. After reading the first page, I was so captivated that I finished the whole book later that night. This is coming from someone who does not like to read. This book has helped me understand so much. I too, at a young age started to experience this "death-like paralysis" which later led to what his grandmother called "witch rides." I understand Mr. Taylor's fear because I felt the same way. Imagine as a young child, waking up or at least you think you woke up but can not move.
