Dharma Book Devil Tigers *OP (Kindred Of The East)

Synopsis

Dharma Book: Devil-Tigers is the first in the series of Dharma Books for Kindred of the East, following in the tradition of Vampire's Clan books. It details the powers, secrets and hidden agendas of the Devil-Tigers. Outsiders consider these undead monsters, wanton killers, infernalists or beasts. Those who follow this Dharma only laugh at such notions. The truth, you see, is far, far worse.

Classic White Wolf books for better or for worse. Great intro comic, but some pages have a watermark which makes them hard to read.

This is a good book for the most part. The introductory story and much of the book focuses on explaining that the Devil Tigers are Demons or think that they are Demons. This makes for a pretty dark book. On the other hand, the thing that distinguishes them from western vampires is that they have something to do--punish the wicked. The only flaw is the pages on using Crimson rituals and artifacts in a live action game--the information appears identical to the info on how to run these artifacts in a standard game.

This books introduces you to the followers of the Devil Tigers Dharma. For those of you unfamiliar with the Kindred of the East system that means Clan. This guys really make look each other nasty of the World of Darkness like children. While all the other Tradition, Clan, Tribe books always have someone who assures you that they are the meanest of all the groups, they are usually lost in their own schemes and petty politicking. That's not the point with the Devil Tigers, they have their feet firmly planted on the ground and of all the supernaturals around the World of Darkness, they have the realest agenda. Worth the reading even if you don't play on this system. Be warned though, you may not like all that you read.

I really like the KoE system, but unfortunately the Devil-tiger book seems to be going into a lot of what White Wolf has been doing lately - let's get more graphic and outrageous when it's not really needed, and we'll sell more stuff. I like the CONCEPT of the devil-tigers, but frankly they go into unnecessary depth. It's one thing to involve violence such as rape in a plot, and say it happened, it's another to actually go and play it out in painful detail. Hope they get better with the next one.
